Independent Reading: Trace a Decision

Tracking #: 2026-11-10-EMM-READ-BOOK-43 · Submit BOTH printable pages

Book record: Your own novel or family-approved reading book is the primary source. Write the title and pages you ACTUALLY read. There is no substitute short passage for the 25 minutes of reading.

Book title: _____ Author: _____ Starting page: _____ Ending page: _____

1. Record your book and pages, then write a three-sentence account of what happened in today's 25 minutes of reading.

2. Describe ONE decision a character made and what motivated it. Identify an exact detail from the book and its page that supports your explanation.

Independent Reading: Trace a Decision

Tracking #: 2026-11-10-EMM-READ-BOOK-43 · Submit BOTH printable pages

Book record: Your own novel or family-approved reading book is the primary source. Write the title and pages you ACTUALLY read. There is no substitute short passage for the 25 minutes of reading.

Book title: _____ Author: _____ Starting page: _____ Ending page: _____

3. Give one outcome that was actually shown and one uncertainty that the story has not answered; if no result is known, explain what is still unresolved.

4. Explain in 3–4 sentences how today's reading develops a character, a problem, or a relationship beyond yesterday's pages.