Independent Reading: What Dialogue Reveals

Tracking #: 2026-11-14-EMM-READ-DIALOGUE-47

Your current book: bring it to the table, not a made-up reading passage

Required record	What to use
Book	Exact title AND author
Reading	25 active minutes before..
Evidence	Actual page, spoken line..
Interpretation	Separate fact from infer..

1. Record the REAL title, author, page range and the number of active minutes you read. Then summarize the scene in TWO complete sentences.

2. Copy one SHORT line of dialogue from today’s actual pages and record its page number. If none exists, label one actual action as an alternative.

Independent Reading: What Dialogue Reveals

Tracking #: 2026-11-14-EMM-READ-DIALOGUE-47

Your current book: bring it to the table, not a made-up reading passage

Required record	What to use
Book	Exact title AND author
Reading	25 active minutes before..
Evidence	Actual page, spoken line..
Interpretation	Separate fact from infer..

3. State what the dialogue literally says and ONE idea about the speaker that you infer. Label these separately as FACT and INFERENCE.

4. Find a second clue from a character’s actions or the narrator, and give its page. Explain in two sentences why it supports or limits your inference.

Independent Reading: What Dialogue Reveals

Tracking #: 2026-11-14-EMM-READ-DIALOGUE-47

Your current book: bring it to the table, not a made-up reading passage

Required record	What to use
Book	Exact title AND author
Reading	25 active minutes before..
Evidence	Actual page, spoken line..
Interpretation	Separate fact from infer..

5. Describe ONE other possible meaning of the same words and tell what missing detail would help a reader decide between the two.

6. Write a FIVE-sentence character note using your book’s exact page evidence, two clues, and a cautious conclusion about the character.