Library Records: What Happened, and What Can We Know?

Tracking #: 2026-11-12-EMM-SOC-LIBRARY-RULES-45

Two fictional civic records

Record	Information
A: library notice	Reading room scheduled to open Fri, Nov 20
B: Friday desk log	18 visitor check-ins
B: Saturday desk log	23 visitor check-ins
Missing	No explanation of cause

1. Write one exact sentence about what Record A ANNOUNCES, naming the scheduled date.

2. Write one exact sentence for each desk log count; label the day in both sentences.

3. Calculate the numerical change from Friday to Saturday and label visitors.

Library Records: What Happened, and What Can We Know?

Tracking #: 2026-11-12-EMM-SOC-LIBRARY-RULES-45

Two fictional civic records

Record	Information
A: library notice	Reading room scheduled to open Fri, Nov 20
B: Friday desk log	18 visitor check-ins
B: Saturday desk log	23 visitor check-ins
Missing	No explanation of cause

4. A neighbor says the rule notice caused a crowd. Explain, using two complete sentences, why these records do not prove a cause.

5. Write a four-sentence account citing Record A and B, including one precise source limit.